

CELEBRATING PENTECOST

The BIRTHDAY of the CHURCH

As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many,
are one body, so also Christ.

For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons,
and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

- 1 Corinthians 12: 12-13

We pause and remember that we are always and everywhere in the holy presence of our God.

May the love of God our Father,
the grace and peace of Jesus the Christ,
and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit
be with us now and forever!

The Spirit of God rests upon me.

The Spirit of God consecrates me.

The Spirit of God bids me go forth to proclaim His peace, His joy.

The Spirit of God sends me forth called to witness the kingdom of Christ among all the nations.

Called to proclaim the Good News of Christ to the poor.

Called to console hearts overcome with great sorrow.

Called to comfort the poor who mourn and who weep.

Called to announce the grace of salvation to men and women.

Called to reveal His glory among all the people.

My spirit rejoices in God my Savior.

- Lucien Deiss, World Library Publications

Reading: Romans 8: 22-27

We know that all creation is groaning in labor pains even until now;
and not only that, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, we also groan within ourselves as we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies.

For in hope we were saved. Now hope that sees for itself is not hope.

For who hopes for what one sees?

But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait with endurance.

In the same way, the Spirit too comes to the aid of our weakness;

for we do not know how to pray as we ought,

but the Spirit itself intercedes with inexpressible groanings.

And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because it intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will.

Reading: Acts 2: 2-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together.
And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were.

Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them.

And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem.

At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language.

They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans?"

Then how does each of us hear them in his own native language?

We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God." They were all astounded and bewildered, and said to one another, "What does this mean?"

Reflection of De La Salle

The Acts of the Apostles reminds us of the grace given to the Apostles by the Holy Spirit. The amazing thing up to then was that these men were so earthy minded that they could not grasp the truths that Jesus had taught them. They were at once so enlightened that they could explain clearly and With all imaginable accuracy what they had been told. As a result those present were completely surprised and filled with amazement and in a short time they converted a great number of them because as Saint Peter said, "the Spirit of God had been poured out upon them."

You do a work that requires you to touch hearts but you cannot do this except by the Spirit of God. Ask the Holy Spirit to give you the same grace that He gave the apostles and after filling yourself with the Holy Spirit to make yourself holy, may you work to bring salvation to others.

Spirit of the Living God Fall afresh on Me

Spirit of the living God,
Fall afresh on me.

Spirit of the living God,
Fall afresh on me.

Melt me, mould me,
fill me, use me,

Spirit of the living God,
Fall afresh on me.

Spirit of the living God,
Move among us all.

Make us one in heart and mind,
Make us one in love.

Humble, caring, selfless, sharing,
Spirit of the living God,
Fill our lives with love.

All: Be with Your Church.

Heal the sick, comfort the distressed and give salvation to all.

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you."

When He had said this; He showed them His hands and His side.

The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord.

Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent Me, so I send you."

And when He had said this, He breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the holy Spirit.

Ephesians 4

I urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received,
with all humility and gentleness, with patience,
bearing with one another through love,
striving to preserve the unity
of the spirit through the bond of peace:
one body and one Spirit,
as you were also called to the one hope of your call;
one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;
one God and Father of all,
Who is over all and through all and in all.
